

Cabbage Salad.—Choose a small head of cabbage, firm and heavy. Shave half of it very fine, cut a head of celery in small pieces, and place all together in a salad bowl. Beat the yolks of 2 eggs with a teaspoonful of mixed mustard and 2 teaspoonfuls of salad oil; add a teaspoonful of salt and 2 of powdered sugar, mix well, then stir in half a cup of sweet cream heated just to the boiling point—milk, rich and sweet will answer, but it is not so good—add 3 tablespoonfuls of hot vinegar; place on the stove and stir constantly until it thickens, when it must be removed instantly as boiling will cause it to curdle. When a little cool, beat in the whipped whites of the 2 eggs, with a few swift strokes; when quite cold turn over the cabbage and serve.
